all it has been evident that the hearts of the people were engrossed with the mighty conflict which is agitating the country. Every Christian man and woman felt that the real struggle with heathenism and wickedness is at home and instantly pressing upon us. In almost every prayer, our blind and infatuated sought. The Southern aid society first presented its claims at Park street church, Sunday evening. The avowed object of this society is to furnish the slave states with ministers whose religious notions are not in conflict with the great southern institution. Rev. Harvey Wood of Mississippi made a singular speech, telling more truth than he intended, probably, when he said, "I am from the sunny south,

Where every prospect pleases, And only man is vite."

The meeting of the Tract society was an excited one. The old officers were re-elected. Tumors, Ulcers Ac., without Surgical Operations with the exception of Rev. Dr. Adams of Boston, for whom Rev. A. L. Stone was substrtuted, avowedly, on account of Dr. Adams' support of slavery. The subject was frankly discussed, and Dr. Adams defended himself by reading testimonials in favor of his book, but without avail. The society also voted, 40 to 12, that the Tract society ought to publish tracts against slavery as against other
